The 1981 season was a rebuilding year for Taft. We enjoyed lots of young students who gained lots of experience. Mr. Acker said, "This year's team and senior class was the most enjoyable one I had the pleasure to work with." In the following years he expects a lot from the Taft Tiger football team.

1. Taft follows ball down field.
2. Taft makes defensive stand.
3. Muddy night in Newport doesn't stop rivals.

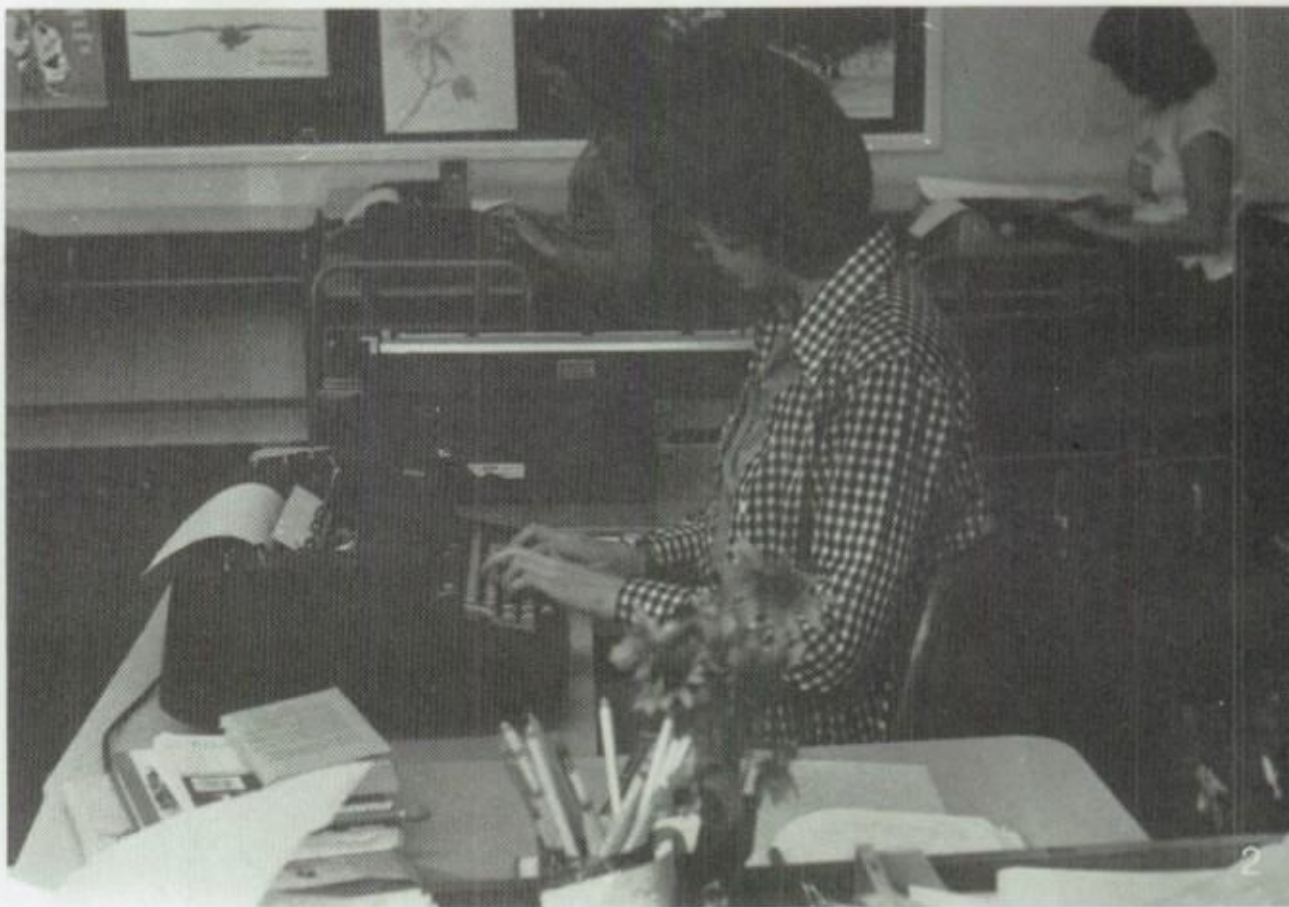

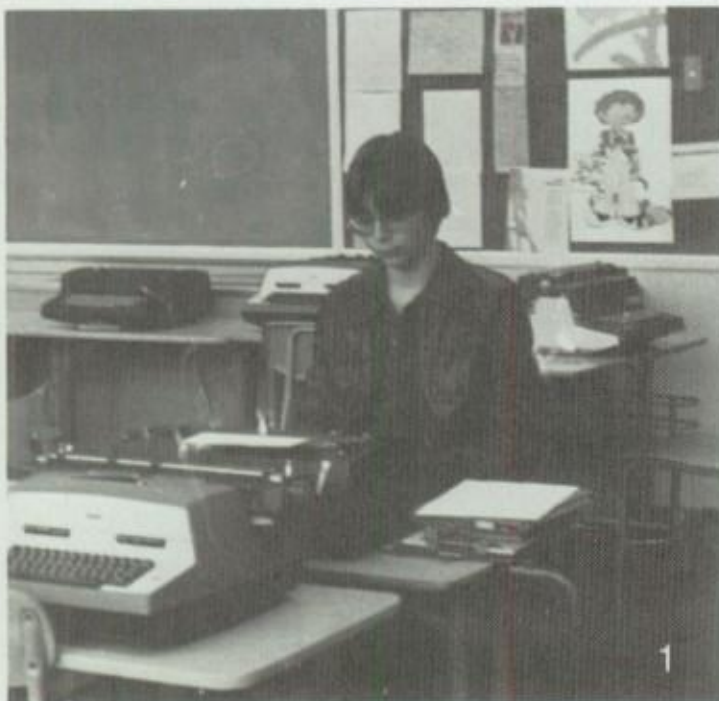

This year Sadie Hawkins had a good turn out. Besides dancing, there was a Justice of the Peace-you could get married and get a kissing license. If you were caught kissing without a license, the boy would be sent off to jail. There was also a place where you and your date could have your picture taken. All in all, everyone seemed to enjoy the dance this year.

BUSINESS OCCUPATIONS

Business Occupations gives students a chance to learn the basics of Computers, Typing, Shorthand, Adding Machines, and Filing. Computer students learn how to use and run computers, studying both practical and entertaining aspects of the computer.

As incoming freshmen, the class of 1985 is challenged by the classes which are required. According to new district requirements, starting this year, a student must receive a total of 24 class credits to graduate. This means '85 has to pass at least 6 classes every year.

Some of the classes freshmen have to surmount are:

MATH- The freshmen are required to take one of the math classes offered to frosh at Taft.

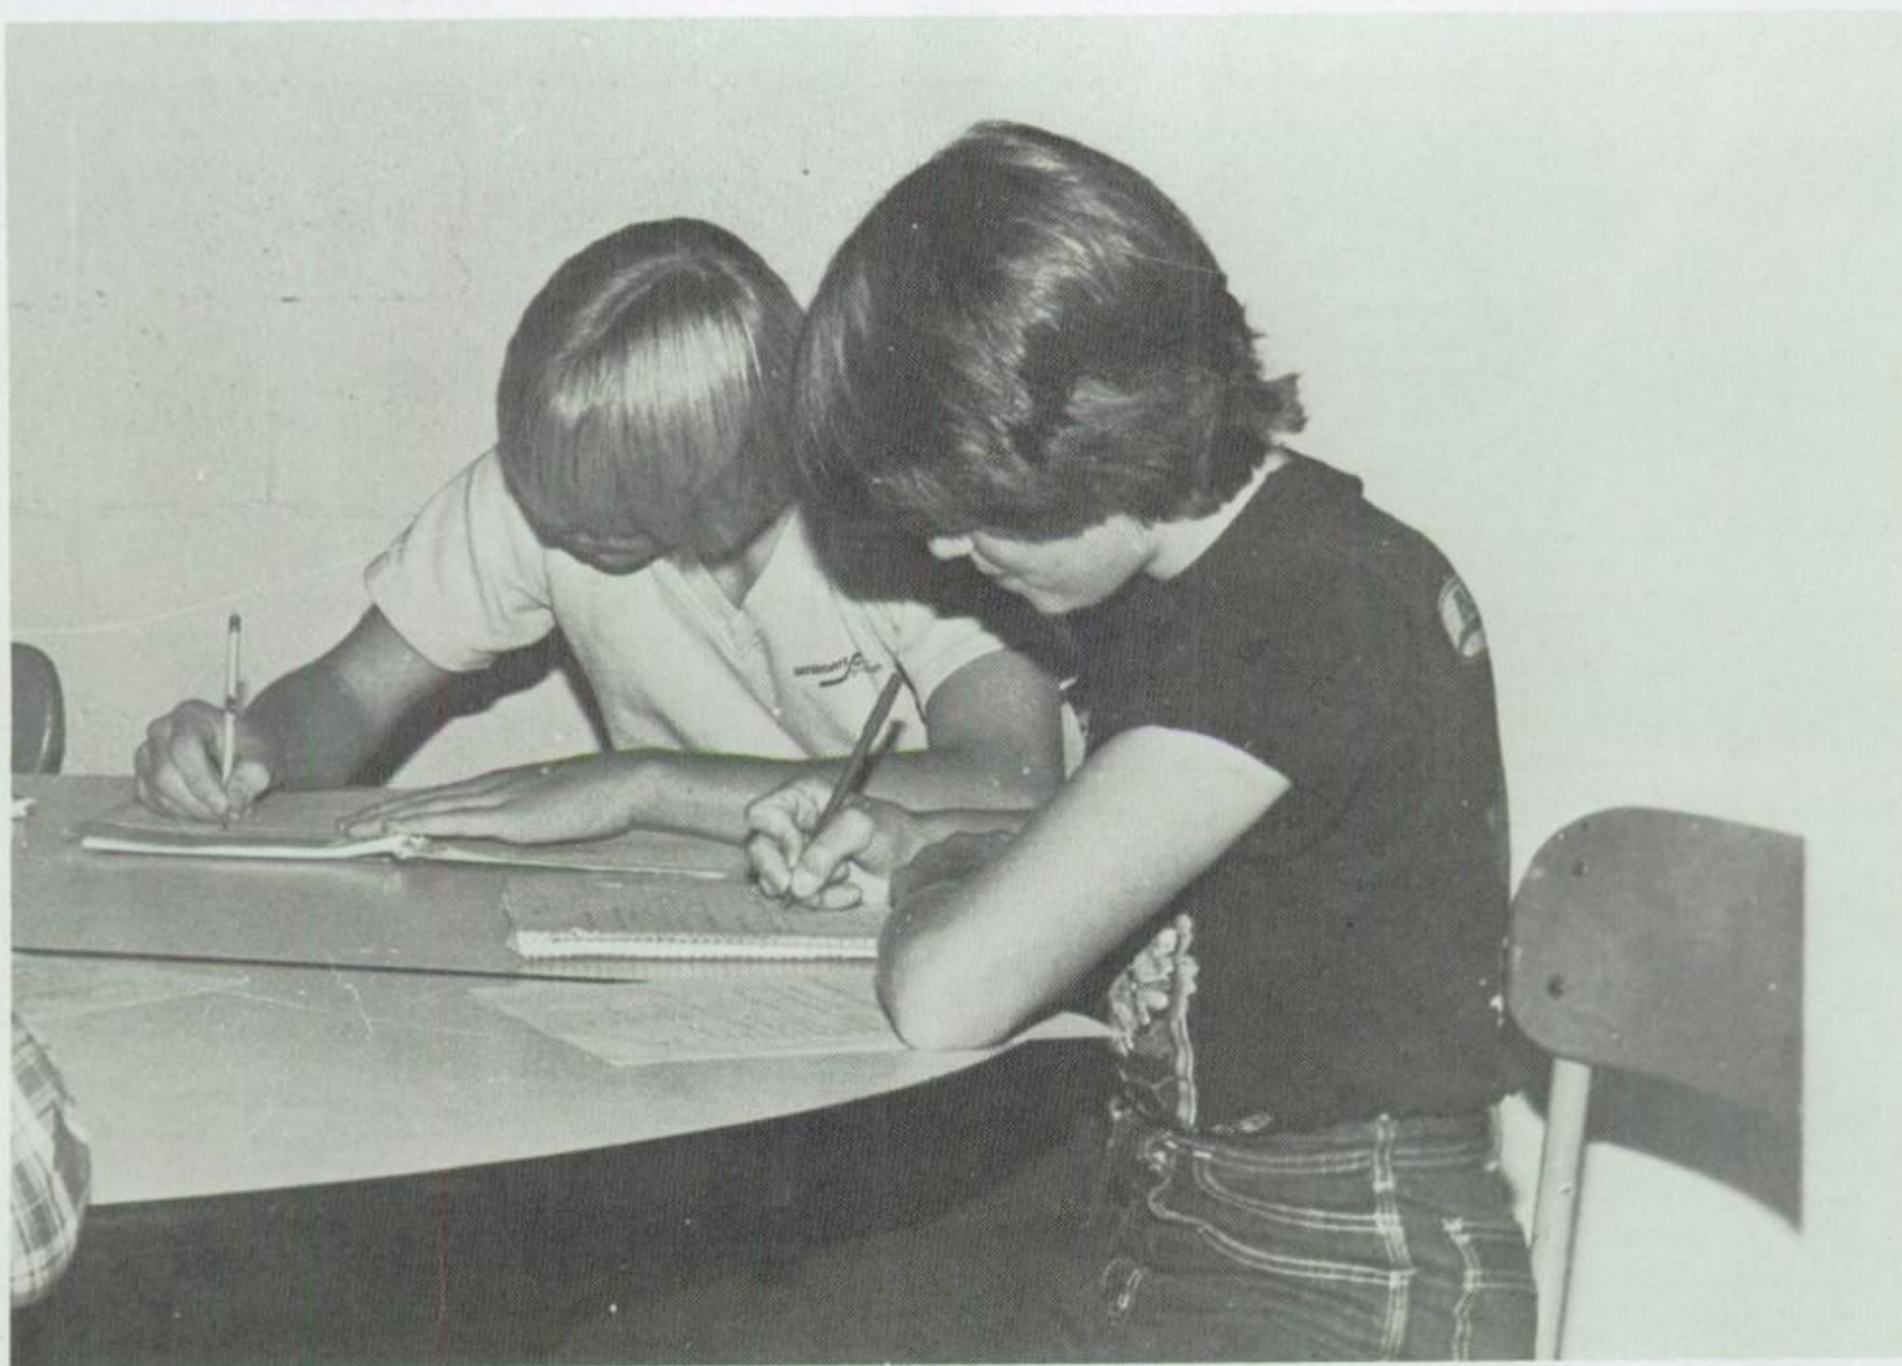

SCIENCE-ISCS is the science class that all freshmen are required to take.

CRUISE- There are six cruise classes and freshmen have a choice of Drivers Education. In cruise frosh learn to deal with job opportunities.

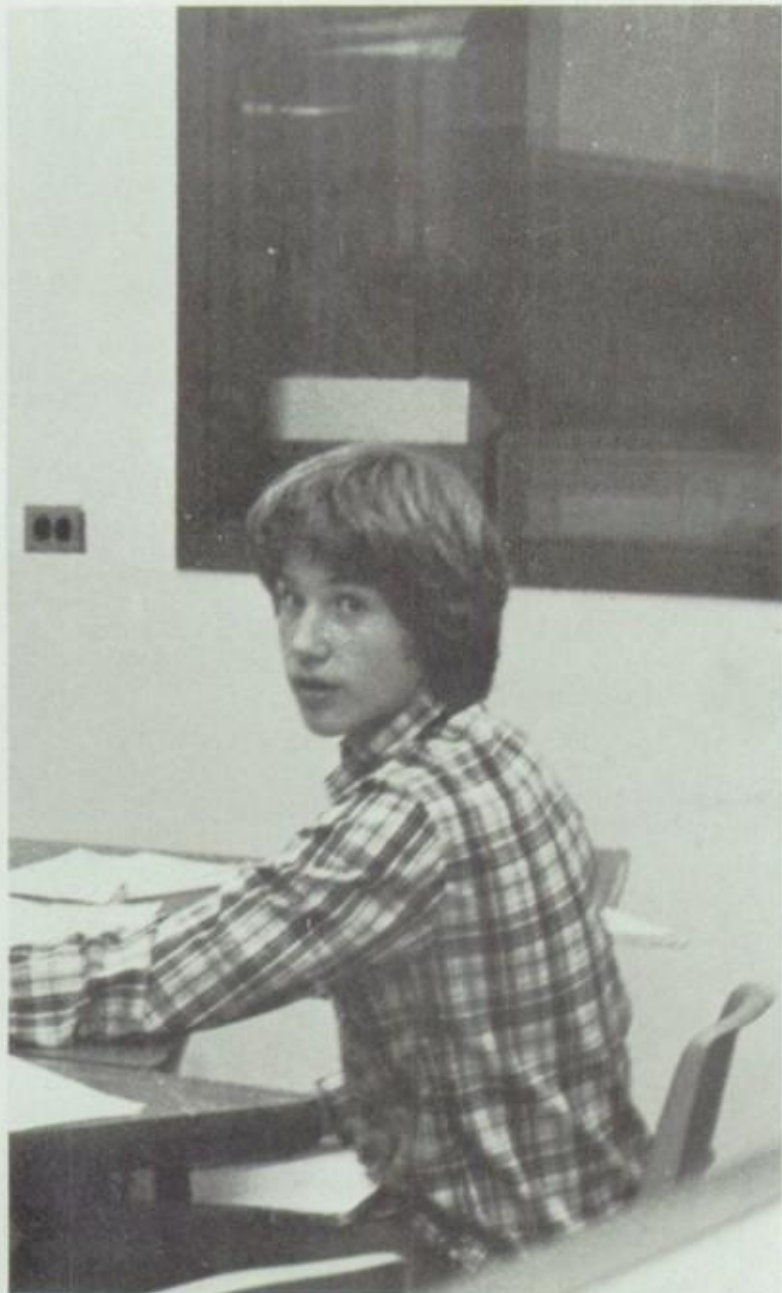

COMMUNICATION 1- Is basically English. It deals with how to communicate in spoken and written language.

WORLD GEOGRAPHY- Is the study of geographic regions of the world.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION- HEALTH- The freshmen are required to take a half year of P.E. and a half year of health.

VOLLEYBALL

Coach John Storka says he was very pleased with this year's volleyball teams. "They're strong competitive teams, outstanding and well experienced." He thinks that they didn't do themselves justice. "We had the capability to go to state. It's sad we didn't make it; I'm very pleased all the same. We have excellent prospects."

Most inspirational- Dolores Ray. Most improved- Katy Trunt. Most valuable- Debbie Zimmerman. Best allround- DaRelle Davis.

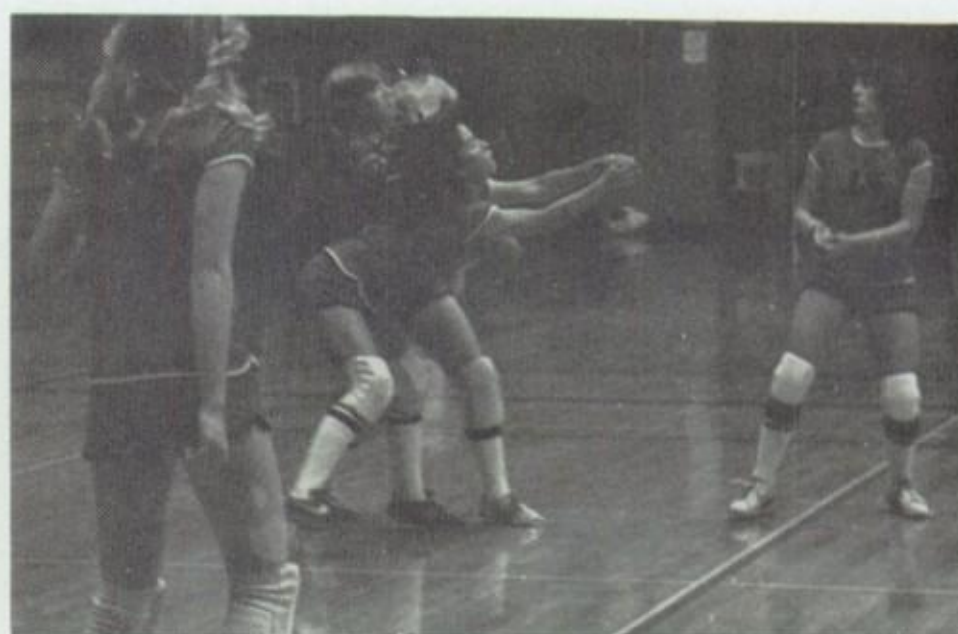

1. Traci Stodka goes for the ball. 2. Kim Baker hits the ball. 3. Debbie Zimmerman sets the ball. 4. Sandy Cline returns a lob. 5. Debbie Zimmerman serves. 6. Gina Lewis bumps the ball. 7. Kim Baker returns a spike. 8. Leslie Dienhaver prepares for a dig. 9. Kay Rannow serves. 10. Krissy Trunt saves a ball. 11. Mereline Butler spikes one down.

Allison Wiloughby thinks that the teams did well and Debbie Zimmerman agrees; it's their last high school season so they're disappointed that they didn't make it to state. Mereline Butler says that they definitely had the potential; the whole team agrees. Katy and Kary Trunt spoke for the whole team when they added that they thoroughly enjoyed all the games and practices.

And their goal for next year? They're going to be #1 at state, of course!

STUDENT COUNCIL

Taft High School has a very active, organized Student Council. They are an enthusiastic group of students who always strive to improve. Some great successes have come from Student Council. Student Council meets twice a month and can be found hard at work meeting goals. Proposed goals for Taft High school were:

1. Increase student involvement.
2. Give more individual and group recognition of students.
3. Maintain a cleaner campus.
4. Initiate a Pep Club or Dance Team.
5. Publish a student newspaper.
6. Add an historian position to Student Council.
7. Create a Student Council that's tops!

Homecoming is a tradition that Taft has had for many years. Taft starts out the tradition with a week of fun and excitement. The week starts out with Coronation of the Queen; the same day students have to come dressed up nice; then they have to dress up with their clothes on backwards; then as cowboys; and then as their favorite character. Friday night of the coronation week is the BIG game. That is how Taft Celebrates their homecoming traditions.

NEW PRINCIPAL AT TAFT

We have a new principal here at Taft. Her name is Paula Raddich. She was formerly the principal at Delake school, and she says her job isn't any different from grade school, but the amount of time and the amount of work have increased. When asked if being a woman made it harder to be a principal, she said it was harder only in the aspect that if a woman fails, it may be a long time before a woman becomes principal again. Mrs. Raddich has some goals for our school: She wants to impliment the discipline policy, improve parent-teacher relationships, improve teaching skills, and make some long-term planning for the school to make it run smoothly.

AFS PUNK BAKE SALE

AFS club decided to add a new dimension to their bake sale. Since it was the first sale of the new school year, they decided to use a theme to attract attention: 'Punk'. They decorated the cake and cookies with pins and tacks. And, As a center piece, a jello, but a controversial one. It had a Baby in it! That didn't discourage the students from the desire to binge on the rest of the goodies, though.

COMPUTER CLUB

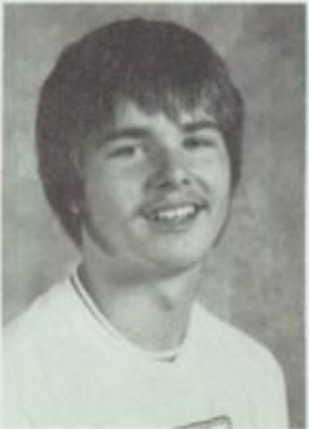

The Computer Club was started by John Rogers early last year. Monthly dues are paid by the members and the money is used to buy computer games. Some of the games are: Super Nova, a TRS-80 simulation of Asteroids; Space Warp, a space battle between the player and an alien force; and Invaders from Space, an easier version of the popular Space Invaders game.

Members of the Computer Club also program their own games. The members of the Computer Club are: John Rogers, Derek French, Todd Holden, Robert Clausing, Rex Gerber, Todd Tepper, Kevin Fox, Chris Morgan, Steve Sunnis, Steve Josephson, James Hamilton, Robert Ticknor, Kevin Clark, and Paul Holloran.

Did you know Taft High School has a Booster Club? Well they do. The Taft High Booster Club has been around for awhile. The members go to athletic events and musical or dramatic productions. They raise money by selling concessions and having raffles. They also sell ads that they put in their Booster schedule.

The Taft High Boosters consist of:

President- Tom Trunt

Vice President- Jerry Morrow

Secretary- Paula Radich

Treasurer- Francis Steere

There are basically ten active members who organize Booster events and approximately 65-80 members who donate yearly by buying ads.

TIGER BOOSTERS

A good analogy for the boosters is like this.

Man could survive on a meal of meat, potatoes, and a vegetable day after day. But wouldn't it be nice to have something extra like some milk or maybe bread and butter. That's what the Boosters are, all the extra things we have. The school budget only gives us enough money for a shirt and shorts for athletics, but thanks to the Booster Club we have warm-ups, and nice equipment to play with.

This year the Boosters bought the Girl's Varsity basketball team new warm-ups. They also had half-time goings-on at basketball games.

Thanks to all the things the Booster club does for us, we can play the game a little better with nicer playing pieces.

RALLY

This year we only had a Varsity Rally, which kept our spirits up all through the football season.

Our Rally had a goal to keep the team together, emotionally and physically. Another goal, which was very important, was to keep themselves together as individuals on a personal level. They let people know how they felt about situations. They expressed their thoughts of what students might prefer in things such as Homecoming week and student council situations. They made the point that students should express their thoughts in school matters and should stand up for their rights. Thank you Rally, for with your support you may have helped us make our roles as students of Taft High School a little better.

CROSS COUNTRY

As sports go, Cross Country takes a special kind of dedication: long hours of lonely, tiring running. Our team really showed success this year by going to State, where Ed Jassmann took 3rd, and Shaun Lamar, a beginning freshman, took 13th. You've really won the game of success, team!

VORIS FIELD

The new football field and track was dedicated as Voris field on September 11, 1981.

Dr. Eugene F. Voris was principal at Taft High School for eight years. During that time he made it possible for programs to achieve state recognized levels in the music department, math, athletics, science, foreign languages, drama, speech and debate, and careers. He also succeeded in getting the funds for the new football field and track.

Dr. Voris was a great humanist. He believed in people and did his very best to help people in the community. He was past president for the Optimists, and was active in the Chamber of Commerce.

ASHLAND ADVENTURE

The trip to Ashland left on October 23rd, organised by Mr. Kinney. They saw three plays: Wild Oats, a very witty well acted play, Otello a dramatic Shakespeare love tragedy, and in the evening- Two Gentlemen of Verona, a lighthearted play of romance. Between plays they had the opportunity for discussion with one of the Ashland actresses; they then went on a guided tour of backstage and the props room. They had lots of fun dressing up in the stage costumes and had a great insight into the work involved in theatre.

According to Head Coach Randy Anderson, the Tigers had an outstanding year. Among the advances made in the game of Basketball were:

1. Making finals of the Seaside Tourney (Randy Gresley broke the scoring record with 39 pts.).
2. Coming within 1 pt. of upsetting Newport, a team that placed 3rd in State.
3. Having some "good fun with good kids" attending Blazer and college games.

Coach Anderson concluded by adding that his great joy was, "seeing men who never gave up from the opening jump ball of the first game to the final buzzer of the last game. I'm proud of them!"

J. V. W O M E N

According to Coach Jim Bean, the J.V. team spent a successful season gaining valuable experience in order to develop players for next year's varsity team. While their season record was only 2-12, each game was hard fought, and, most important, every girl played.

V W A O R M S E I T Y N

Coach Dan Acker called the varsity's season a building year. The team was a young one with only 2 seniors, but in spite of that, they had an impressive 5-7 league record. With 10 of the girls returning, Coach Acker looks for an "awesome" team next year. Top L-R: Julie HERNdon, Debbie Zimmerman, Allison Willoughby, Wendy Levig (MVP, 2nd All-Valco League).
Middle L-R: Gail Vickstrom (Most Inspirational), Kay Rannow, Mereline Butler (Best De-

SERVICE OCCUPATIONS CLUSTER

Service Occupations has had one of its most successful years in its 8 years of existence. The 20+ students involved have worked in over 40 work stations in each of the schools in North Lincoln County, several kindergartens, a child care facility, the Lincoln City offices, the city recreational center, Lincoln City Flower Shop, and Headlines by Doug Sami.

Seniors trained in peer counseling techniques with a 7 member group of junior high students and became certified peer counselors.

The 5 member team of Dawn Walsh, Debbie Zimmerman, Jayme Freund, Lisa Sinnot, and Carla Smith won the 1st place child care competition at the Linn-Benton Skills Contest. In fact, it was a clean sweep for Taft SOC students. Individual awards went to Jayme Freund, 1st, Debbie Zimmerman, 2nd, and Lisa Sinnot, 3rd. Outstanding Service Occupations Student Award went to Jayme Freund, Dawn Walsh, Debbie Zimmerman, and all seniors who have been in the program for 2 years.

Most Inspirational was Sean Connery,
Most Improved was Stuart Arnold,
Most Outstanding was John Rogers.

Wrestling at Taft High School for the 1982 season was characterized by an enthusiastic group of young wrestlers. There was a tremendous amount of growth with some of the older wrestlers having good success. Hard work, early morning practices and the first wrestling push off were some of the joys of the season for Taft High. One of the highlights of the year was soundly beating two traditional rivals, the Newport Cubs and the Toledo Boomers.

This years Varsity wrestlers were; Randy Roberts, Darren Stone, Robert Ticknor, Derek French, Sean Connery, Don Wood, Stuart Arnold, Jamie Beaber, Kevin Clark, Leroy Adams, John Rogers.

John Rogers and Randy Roberts are the only two that went to state.

SKI CLUB

We almost did not have a Ski Club, but since we "brats" bugged Mr. Stotka and Mr. Correia so long, they simply gave in and we got one. Once started, the Ski Club was very popular. The trips taken were the best so far, even though the first trip was only an ice skating one, and on the second one, a skiing trip, the weather was so wet that the people almost water-skied. We enjoyed everyone of the many trips and can say that Ski Club is a fun club for everyone with a good sense of humor, warm, waterproofed clothes and money!

A N N U A L

This year our yearbook was based on a "Game" theme. Everyone in class, part-time and full-time, worked very hard to work the theme into the book. Bill Biggs contributed some pictures, but copy and a large portion of pictures were from students.

Because of the inexperience this year's staff had to begin with, things got off to a slow and rough start. As the year progressed things picked up, and by the end of the 1st semester, work was moving fast and smoothly.

People don't realize how much hard work and what long hours you have to put in to make a yearbook. Not just anyone can do it, as a few staff members found out.

Getting all the pages done means a lot of time sitting down writing copy, making sure everything is spelled and punctuated correctly, and a lot of darkroom time. That means to develop your film, find good negatives, mix chemicals, and print pictures again and again until they are right. After the easy part is done, you have to paste up all your pictures so the page looks good, paste up your copy, write headlines, then make all necessary notes to the publisher. After you do all this, you start to work on your next pages. Class time isn't enough for passing this class; you have to sell ads, take all your own pictures, ask questions and find out all the facts; this means you have to spend time after school doing research to have good pages. Also developing and printing all your film and pictures can keep you in the darkroom until into the night or on weekend afternoons.

All in all, though, it is a good, fun class. You learn about writing and photography, and then you get to see your work in the yearbook for as long as the book lasts.

Full time staff members were; Pam Sturdevant, Todd Tepper, and Alison Teal.

Part time; Dana Parnell, Isa Baschab, Dwayne Barker, Jon Golly, Norman Berg, Samantha Fredericks, Traci Odlin, Shannon Sanders, Dewayne Lumpkin, Pat Gallasso.

CHRISTMAS AT TAFT

We celebrated Christmas at Taft by decorating classrooms and class doors. Mr. Stotka had a large Christmas tree; his classes put their effort into decorating the tree. Mr. Voyles held a door decoration contest. Lots of the classes decorated their doors. The results were:

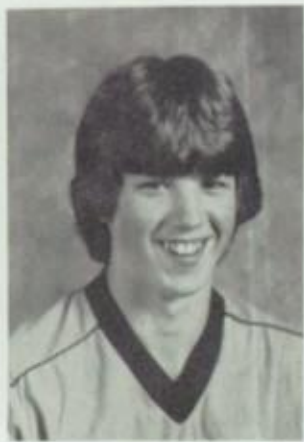

Speediest	Office
Best Overall Door	Art Room
First Runner Up	Mrs. Taylor's Office
Best Overall Room	Home Ec.
Best Bulletinboard	Home Ec.
Most Humorous	Mrs. Coffield
Most Unusual Door	Mrs. Voyles
Most Sincere	Mr. Olsen
First Runner Up	Career Ed. Office

Another thing we did this year was we had the annual Christmas concert sponsored by the Music department. Each year they move another space in the game of success.

SNOW STORM

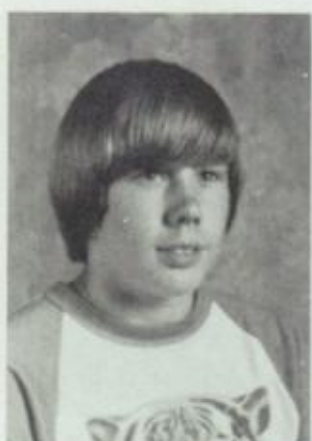

Snow is sort of an unusual thing here at Taft. For three days the students expected the school to close, but it never happened. It seemed the whole world was out of school, but us. Many basketball games were cancelled because of school closures. The temperature dropped to as low as 20 degrees, which made for dangerous driving conditions. During the cold spell heaters didn't work, so the school was very cold for a week and the heaters were turned off completely one day for repairs.

FASHION BOARD

This year an addition was added to the list of activities offered at Taft High.

Six students participated in modeling fashions, sponsored by Beach Toggery.

The fashion board was made up of four seniors, one junior, and one sophomore.

These students were Brent Wilson, Sue Calkins, Jay Tepper, and Samarie Merceau, all seniors; Leanne Frazier, a junior; and Mark Berryhill, a sophomore.

The main purpose of the fashion board is to give the students an idea of what a modeling career is like.

We talked to most of the students on the board, and when asked, they thought it was a worthwhile experience.

MEDIEVAL FEAST

On a winter tide the drama group a feast did have.
 As the gentle persons entered, nobles' names were proclaimed.
 After all had entered, the lord and his lady were chosen.
 To warm the gentle hearts, warm drinks were accepted.
 A song of love and rejection was then sung by Sir Kenneth Goodpaster.
 Somehow a homely beggar wandered in, but was quickly ejected by the royal guards.
 While the main course was being served, the eaters were being entertained by a musical pair.
 The feature event of the feast was a scene from MacBeth.

SOPHOMORE CLASSES

Moving up a step in complexity is what the sophomores have done in the game of success. By becoming sophomores, you get certain classes like: Shop, Biology, Health, P.E. and Comm 2. In most of these classes the teachers teach the basics of each, but they still do some unusual and uncommon things in all of these classes. In shop Mr. Corriea does a lot of teacher to student teaching and supplies a lot of opportunities to make different projects.

In Biology the long awaited day is when everybody dissects frogs. Health teaches things that will be needed later in life. P.E. is hard work and exercise, but it is one of the funnest classes in school. Comm. 2 teaches how to survive in the world of advertisements. When sophomores succeed to become juniors, they will have advanced to the junior block.

In music everybody excells to their limit. This year the music department went to a Maynard Ferguson concert. Mr. Parker and Mr. Culver held a solo festival which 3 other schools attended. The stage band went to many stage band contests and did well. This was the first year the band really got into marching, so they put on many marching shows. With all the band and chorus did for the community and the music program, they advanced a step in the game of success.

DANCE TEAM

Although this was the first year for it, the dance team certainly made a place for itself in the Taft game of success. They spent lunches and after school hours developing and rehearsing routines for half time entertainment at boy's and girl's basketball games. When asked to describe her dancers, Director Eddie Oman typified them as full of spirit and very dedicated, citing the hard work and lengthy practices it took to develop the team. It wasn't all work, however; both director and dancers enjoyed the activity and had a lot of fun.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

This year's AFS club consisted of nine members. Co-Presidents were Jay Tepper and Ruth Robertson, Secretary- Susan Quade, Treasurer- Kay Rannow.

The club did a number of activities, the greatest being the dessert weekend when foreign students from surrounding towns came to Lincoln City to spend three days. They had a beach party and went out on the ocean. Jay Tepper applied to go abroad this year and was successfully placed in Great Britain and left in August. Our three students did many speeches around the community and took part in quite a number of activities.

Marcy Taylor was counselor and gave good advice and help.

I would like to thank each and everyone of you guys for your friendliness. It was just great being with you and it brought surprises and funny experiences to me and probably to you as well. I remember how scared I was when I first came not speaking the language very well and understanding it even less. Your friendliness and patience was of great help. My congratulations to you for your ability to remain calm and polite when I spoke about politics and you didn't always agree. Thank you for letting me be an accepted class member of the class with class of "82". Bye Bye. Isabella Baschab. West Germany

This year has been really special to me. I have enjoyed so many things and people have been so nice. Cross Country, despite it being exhausting and hard work will be one of my greatest memories and I am really proud to have been part of the team. I shall take home lots of good memories of the people I have met and the activities I have been involved in.

I was very glad that Taft had a ski club as going a whole year without ever ski-ing might be dreadful.

I never imagined that I could feel so much a part of school and Lincoln City so quickly. I almost feel like I always lived here! Its hard to leave people that I love so much and will miss a lot. I shall really miss the ocean too. A big Thank you to all of you. I will never forget you. Vreni Heider. Switzerland

What a shock I had to find that Lincoln City wasn't a huge metropolis! Despite my initial surprise I have grown to love and adore this little ocean side town. The people here have been so good to me and I have learned so much from them. School has been fun and I have enjoyed a change in system. I enjoyed watching Basketball; it was awesome; never mind that we didn't win. I have lots of great memories and shall miss everything and everyone terribly. I wish that we had school Proms at home because I really loved wearing a long dress! I was lucky to have such a great host family and it was neat to see what it's like to have brothers.

Thanks to Marcy for helping me and keeping me out of trouble and THANK YOU to all of you for making this year one that will always be one of the best. Alison Teal England

JUNIOR CLASSES

On level three of the game of success, the juniors have only two required classes: Communications III and U.S. History. This is the year that people tend to go their own ways as far as classes are concerned. Juniors have a lot of classes in electives and can choose to sample a variety of subjects or specialize in one area. Much of the junior year is related careers. Students might sample a variety of cluster programs including health, services, cadet teaching and of course their own personal jobs after school.

In addition to academics and careers, the juniors responsibility for activities, too. They put on the Junior-Senior Prom as well as decorating the gym for graduation.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The junior varsity baseball team had a good year with a 7-3 record for the season. Coach Bob Weldon commented that with such improvement we should have many star baseball players next year.

VARSITY

The 1982 Taft Tiger baseball team was a very successful one with a 15-6 win/loss record and a second place finish in the Valco League. This 1982 Taft Tiger team scored 128 runs to its opponents' zero runs and continued the running tradition of Taft baseball.

Under Coach Tessicini's tenure the team has had 8 straight winning seasons for a win/loss record of 128/53.

Next year looks even greater with the return of Shaun Ehrenfelt and Jeff Krieger as pitchers.

With an 11-1 season record our softball team had an excellent year that included a trip to State. Kary Trunt (Most Valuable Player), Kay Rannow, Mereline Butler (Most Inspirational), and Karen Kinman were 1st team Valco League and 1st team Dist. 4-AA. Amy Dummer (Hon. Mention Dist.), Krissy Trunt (2nd team Dist.), and Wendy Levig (Hon. Mention Dist.) made 2nd team Valco League, Katy Trunt made Hon. Mention Valco League and Carla Smith was Most Improved.

HEALTH CAREERS

Health careers students spend eighteen weeks in the classroom learning about a variety of career opportunities and some basic techniques related to patient care.

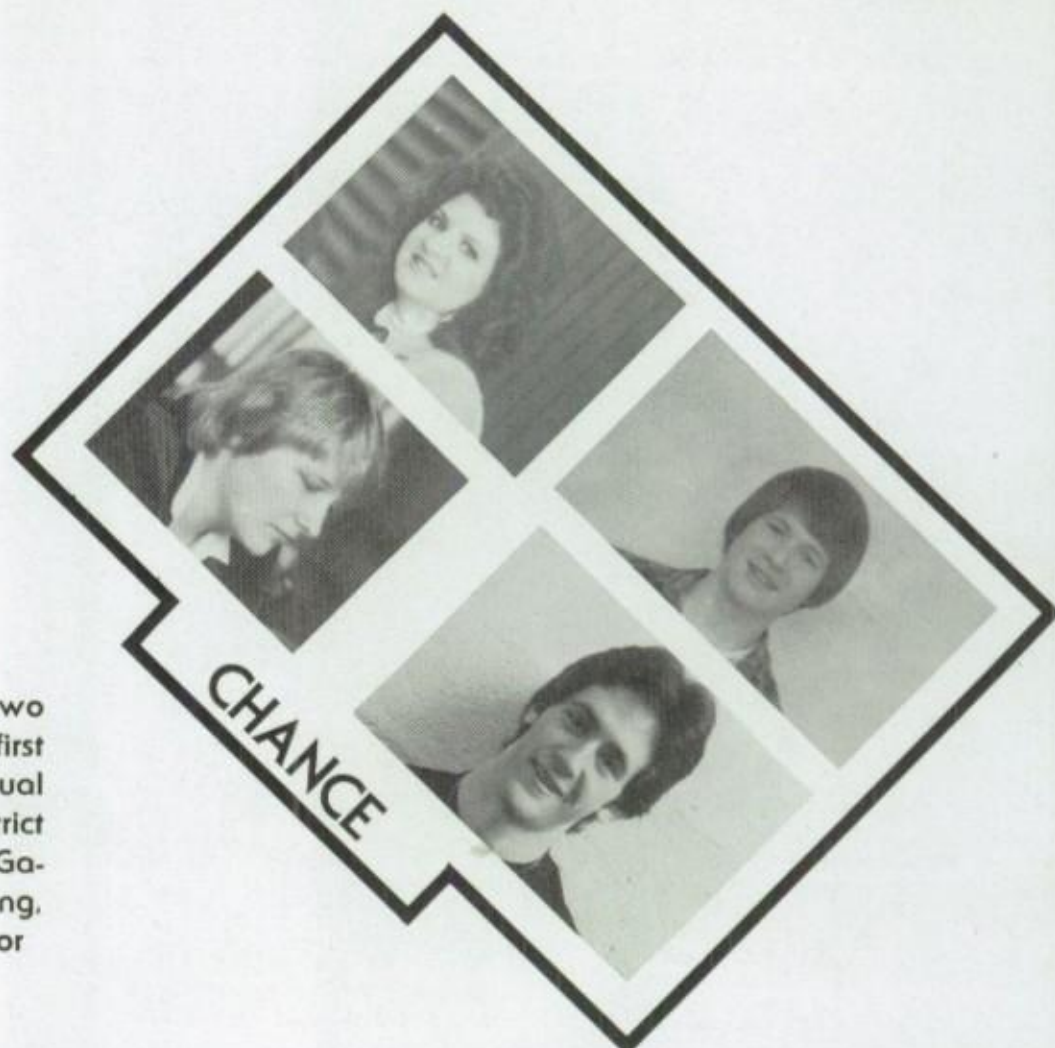

In school they participate in vision, hearing, and blood pressure screening checks.

The final semester of school the students have an on the job experience at a variety of clinical sites; veterinary clinics, dental offices, nursing home, hospital, physician's offices, ambulance service and mortuary. Health career students shown here are: Karen Kinman, Phyllis Horner, Lori Purcell, and Phil Taunton. Not pictured: John Brutto.

The Debate Team did very well this year, capturing two second place trophies at Tillamook, along with three first place trophies at the District level. The excellent individual efforts produced the Debate Sweepstakes title at District also. Debate team members include: Brent Wilson, Pat Galasso, Craig Berg, Susan Quade, Julie Rogers, Tim Loving, Amy Dummer, and Dana DellaValle. Mr. Melhoff-Advisor

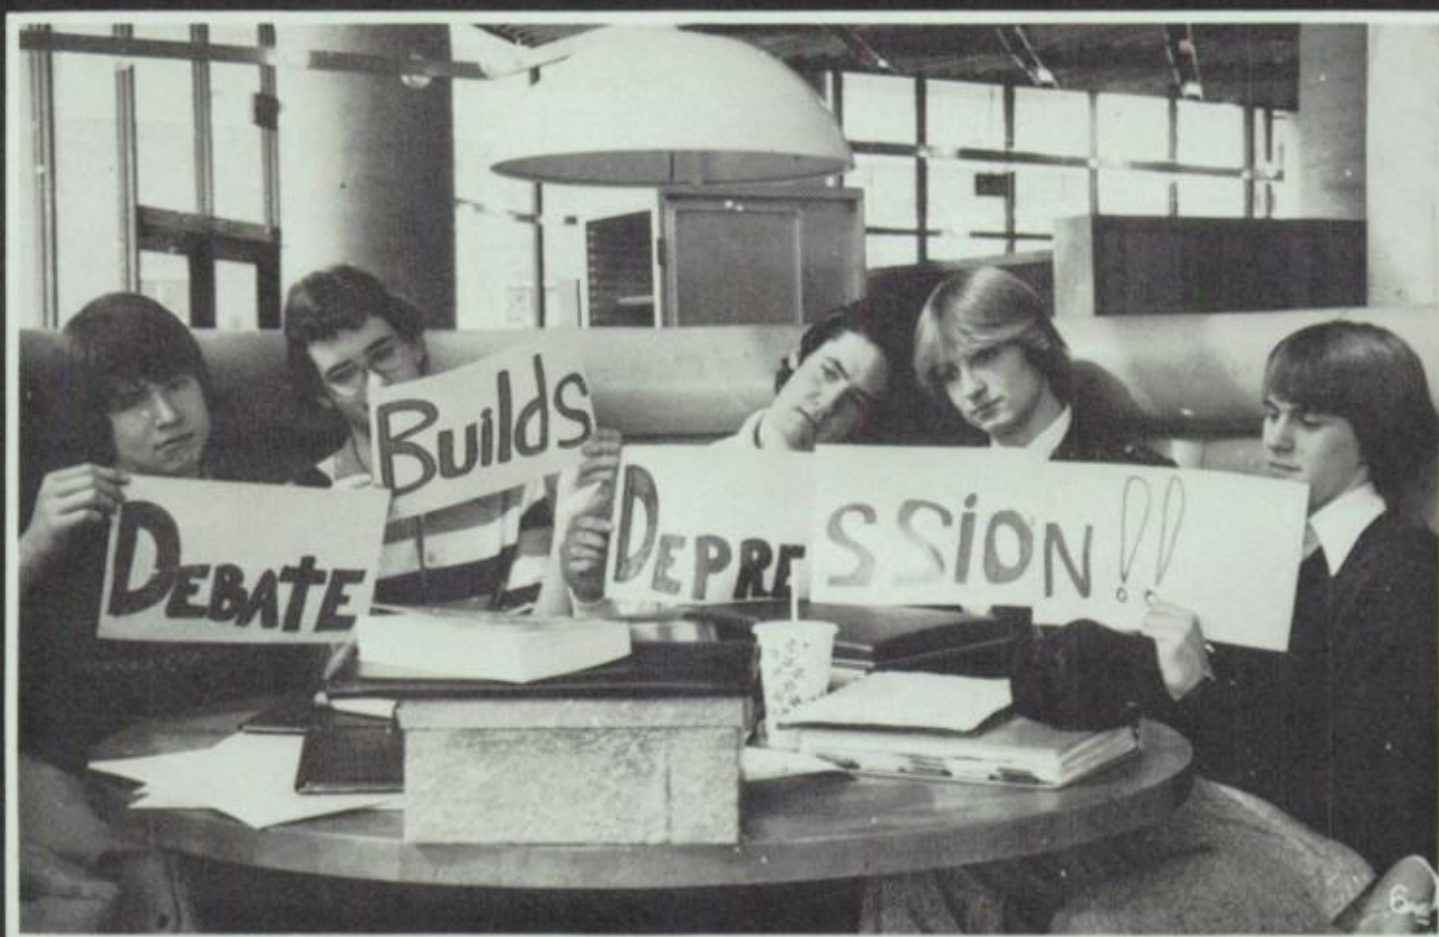

SPEECH AND DEBATE

The Speech team competed strongly against larger schools despite its diminished size. They took one second place at WOSC, one first, one third and two fourth places at District. Speech team members are: Brent Wilson, Jay Tepper, Craig Berg, and Susan Quade.

LINN-BENTON SKILLS CONTEST

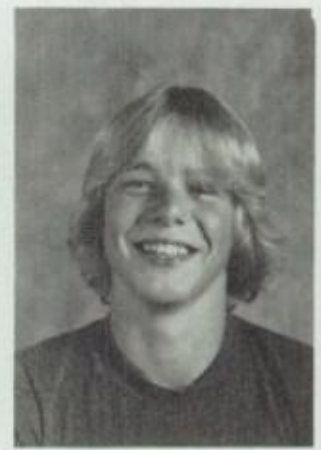

B. Lindsey
K. Lowry

A number of students left Taft at 6:00 am to represent the school in the skills contest held at Linn-Benton Community College. Students participated in many subjects: child care, auto mechanics, technical drawing and mathematics, to name a few. After all competitors had finished their events, they met in the hall where all the students entered, awaiting the announcement of winners and the presentation of awards. Taft took 21 awards all together: Physical Science-Derek French and Kevin Clark, 1st. Math I-Kami Morrow, Traci White, Robert Stirling, 2nd. Basic Science-Steve Sunnes and Robert Stirling, 2nd. Computers-Chris Morgan, Steve Sunnes, Derek French, 1st. Child Care-Jayme Freund, Debbie Zimmerman, Lisa Sinnot, Dawn Walsh, Carla Smith, 1st. Architectural Drawing-Andy Pickering, 2nd. RUBIC'S CUBE

One of the major fashion invasions on the intellectual sector for the years 1981 and 1982 was the all present Rubic's cube. This little cube with its 6 different colors and its 26 little cubes that are to be brought into their proper positions (according to the colors) drove more people crazy than anything else. Not only does the player become neurotic when trying to solve the cube's problem, but the spectators also. There is something about that toy that makes it very special; little kids can sometimes solve it without very much trouble, but the college professor has trouble doing so. Fathers see their kids playing with it and say: "Let me help you," as if that was so easy. Once caught by the magic of the cube, the father is the one needing help, and more than once it happened that the kids had to help or in some cases lost the cube to the father. It is, like many other problems, a provocation for all the people who want to prove their intelligence and, therefore, very important to be solved. The market did not wait long to offer the consumer the instant solution and many of the people who could not solve the cube because of impatience took the chance to learn the cube by heart. Because of the "booklet's" solution, only the true interested ones that love to challenge their minds did solve or at least tried to solve it on their own. They really had the joy of playing around with the cube, understanding it and getting the respect from their mates. (For the ones not too interested in solving the cube but curious about its history: Did you know that the cube was invented by a college professor in Hungary who wanted to teach his students to think logically?)

The 1982 Track and Field season was one of the most exciting in years. More school records were set this year than in any of the past ten seasons.

1982 also marked the return of the county track meet to Taft High. It has not been hosted here in over 12 years, and the inauguration of a completed track facility.

Most importantly the boys and girls track teams were larger this year than ever in the history of Taft Track. The Valco League is the strongest track district in the state and Taft was very competitive. The girls dual meets were all won or lost by less than 10 points. Two girls and six boys earned trips to state with either 1st or 2nd place finishes at district.

School records that were set in 1982 were:

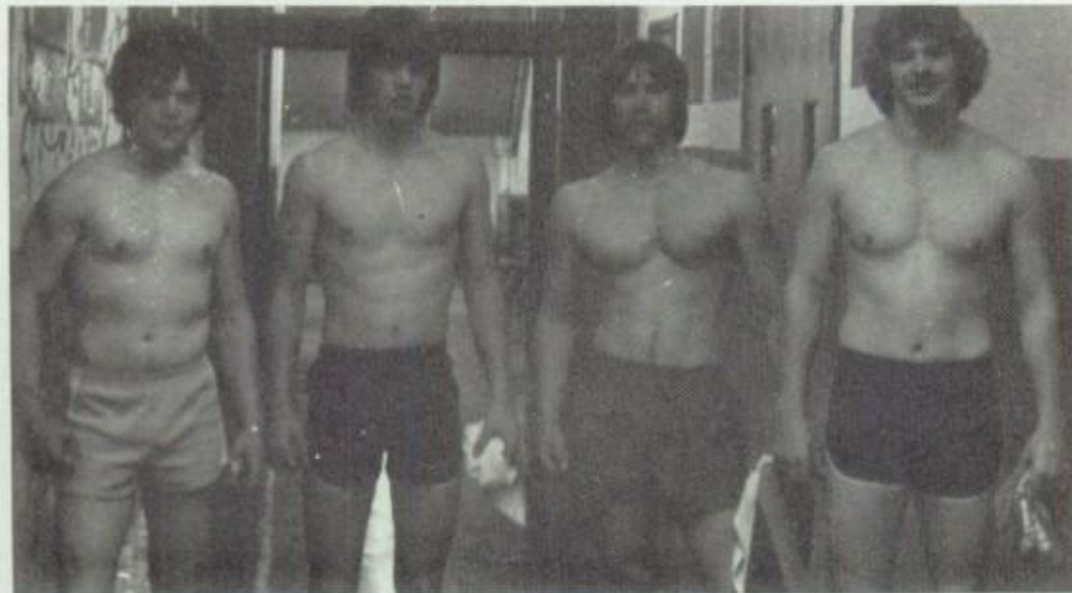

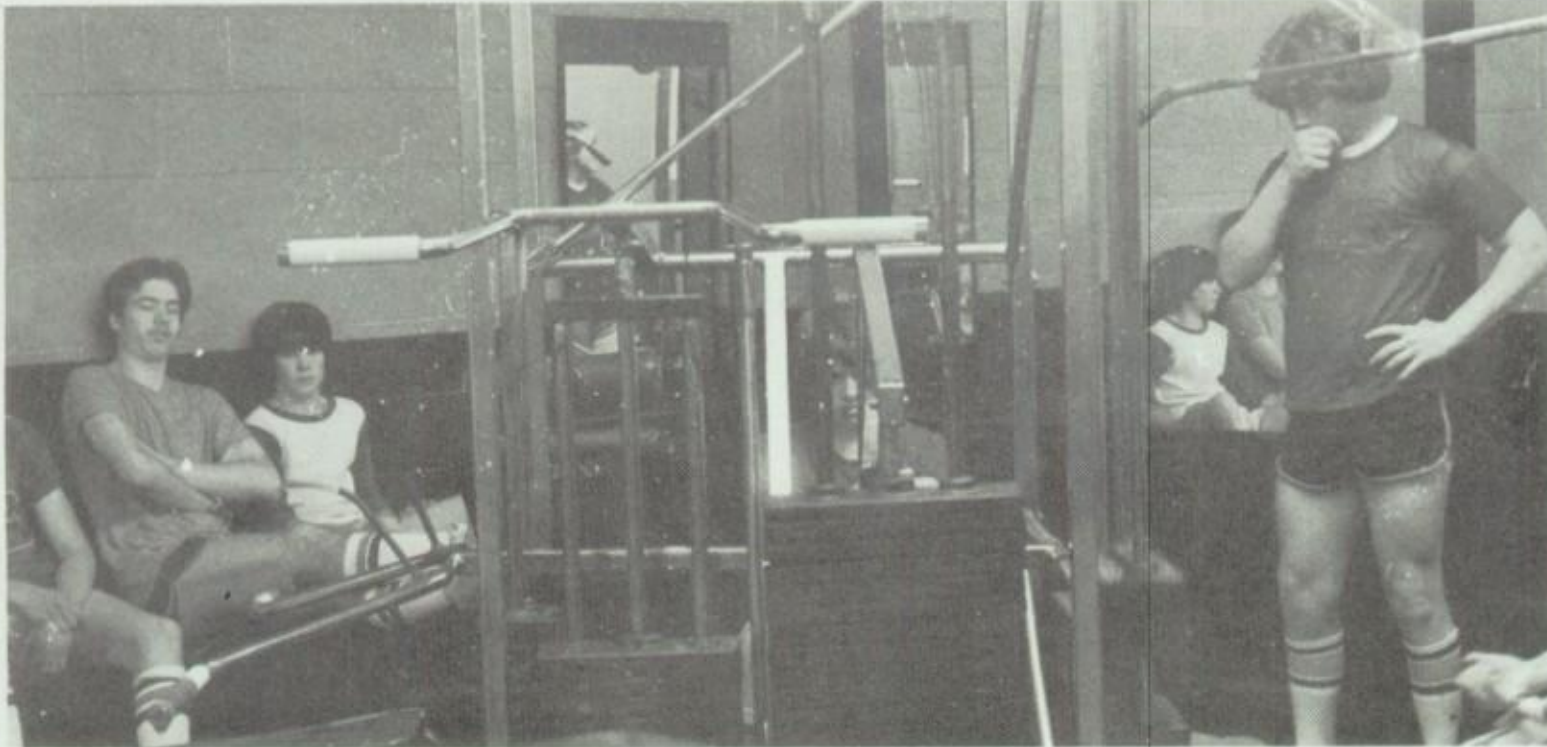

Ed Jassman 3000m Run 8:46.8
Cindy Galasso 3000m Run 12:36.4
Donna Tessicini Long Jump 16'8.25"
Tish Morris 300 Hurdles 49.2
Girls 1600 Relay 4:21.3
Girls 400 Relay 52.2

State results:

Ed Jassman 1500-5th, 3000-3rd
Shannon Baird High Jump-6th

WEIGHT CLUB

The weight classes are made up of girls and boys in their sophomore, junior, and senior year. There are four classes of 10 girls and 80 boys. It is the greatest number of weight class students ever reached since its reintroduction 5 years ago. The participation of girls is especially extraordinary. Thinking about girls lifting weights, one wonders- but only at the first moment. Thinking about the reason for weightlifting and what it should do for one, it seems very reasonable.

Talking to Mr. Acker, who is teacher for 2 of the 4 classes, we found out that weightlifting to a certain extent, is good for mental stability because the body's energy gets used and does not cause people to be aggressive anymore; it also gives self confidence because the body is in good shape and one does not feel so insecure about it. The good shape means flexibility and quickness, which is achieved by lifting lighter weights with more repetitions. The teacher makes a daily "workout" plan about what every individual student has to do.

So it is a good class to get into and students do well as teachers are pretty satisfied with it. Their only wish is to get a bigger room so there would be better possibilities of working and more people could take it.

Drama had one of its most successful years ever! The highlight of the year was to take on Shakespeare with a production of MacBeth, complete with thunder, lightning, special effects, live music, swordfights, murder and insanity. Not only did the production break audience attendance records, but when the cast took it to a drama festival at WOSC, they won a trophy for outstanding production and Katie Kemp won a trophy for outstanding acting. The Taft Players ended the year with lighter fare, doing the comedy The Importance of Being Earnest. MacBeth cast members were: 1) Ed Jassman (Murderer) fights it out with Ron Brown (Mentieth). 2) Wayne Allen (MacBeth) and Ken Goodpaster (MacDuff) fight to the death. 3) MacBeth and Lady MacBeth (Susan Quade) anguish over the murder of Duncan. 4) Katie Kemp (Hecate/Lady MacDuff) helps Julie Mosier (Witch) with make-up. 5) The three witches (Kelly Keeney, Julie, Robin Schiemann). 6) Mr. Kinney (Murderer) brings MacBeth news of Banquo's murder. 7) Preparing for battle: L-R: Sean Butler (Young Siward), Ron, Rex Gerber (Siward), Jay Tepper (Ross), John Brutto (Malcolm), Ken. 8) Brent Wilson as Banquo's ghost. BOYS GOLF

Boys golf had a highly successful season with such a relatively young team. They worked hard on their game and the results were good. Coach Jim Sullivan lead the team in a great season with 18-1 record in dual meets, undefeated in the league, Valco champs, Dist. 4 champs, and 5th in State. Chris Gesik was voted Most Valuable Golfer and Brian Sullivan the Most Improved. Making 1st team all-league were: Chris Gesik (Medalist), Rob Ticknor, and Rusty Oliver.

For a team that had never won a match before, the girls had an excellent season with a 22-7 record. With the largest girls team ever, Coach Frank Olsen listed the victory over Toledo that placed the team 1st in District as the highlight of the season. Individual achievements included Julie Rogers, Most Valuable Player and 3rd in District, and Lisa Wright, Most Improved and 4th in District; both girls were voted All League. With five freshmen this year, and the progress made by everybody, Coach Olsen expects a winning season again next year.

ART

This year's art classes were pretty crowded with over 100 students. It was a nice mixture of different arts studied. There was drawing, painting, designing, print making, sculpting and ceramics. Of course as a beginner one cannot be expected to know everything, so the program was divided into two classes - beginning class where they studied design, and advanced, where they develop special skills and talents. The classes went on a number of field trips to galleries, including one to the Boyden Studio. As well as visiting other shows, students put on a number of shows on their own, including exhibits at Lincoln City Stationery, Taft and the junior high. Students also won awards for their work at the Linn-Benton Skills Contest. Group, L-R: Rhonda Jewett (painting and sculpture), Marilyn Wickson (painting), Kevin Zook (drawing and photography) and Sean Connery (graphics).

K E Y C L U B

Key Club as a Kiwanis sponsored club, is a service organization which is serving the public. This year the club had more members than last year and managed to give very good service to the community. They helped with the Easter Egg Hunt, gave free carwashes, took the handicapped children of the TMR class to the marine science center, provided a scholarship of $300 for a senior of '82 and also continued to support a child in Korea. All this goes along with this year's Key Club theme: Pursuing Tomorrow's Potential. They not only pursued outside potential but also developed their own. The Key

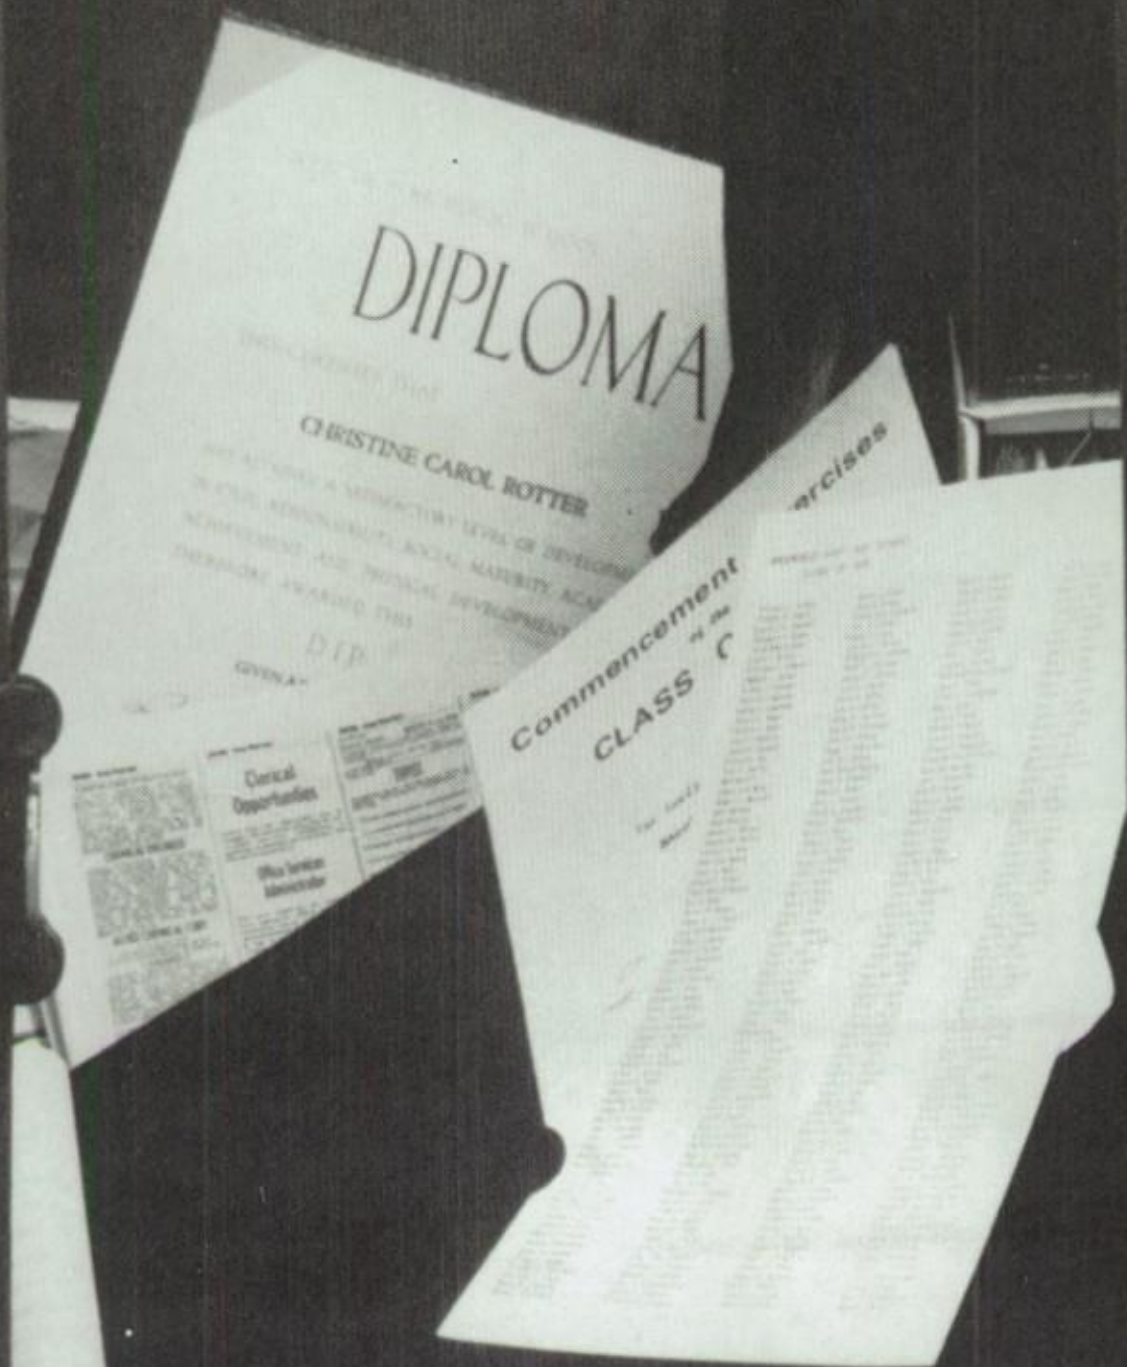

Club officers naturally had to show a lot of their potential last year to be elected officers for this year, but as officer one is even more challenged. A challenge was also experienced by Brent Wilson who was elected Lieutenant Governor over the clubs in the district. All together they had a great time of learning and working - together. They all hope Key Club will be even better next year, developing all its potential. This year's officers were: Sue Calkins, Secretary, Pat Galasso, President, Julie Rogers, Vice President, and Ida Ahlson, Treasurer.

copies of the "Johnny and the Distractions" and "Joan Jett" album reviews. To Robert Ticknor, I will my visitor's pass, my seat in Mr. Tucker's class, and my ability to get A's on all of his tests without studying. To Katy Kemp, I give something she already has, but can never get enough of, and that is my love of acting, Ashland, and the magic of Shakespeare. To Mr. Kinney, that constant student of the theater, I hereby sign over my acting career in the form of a contract for the next few years at Taft, or until I get one signed at Julliard. To the Taft High Multi-Purpose room and to returning generations of Taft drama students, I now donate the ghost of Macbeth to haunt that stage and to guide future high school actors. To Karen Bielenberg, I entrust the most treasured of all possessions, Macbeth's grey tights, and the thought that Macbeth shall forever roam these halls with bare legs. To Lisa Sinnot, I leave all of my long notes and provocative pictures, drawn with much care by Jeff Herndon and me. Don't lose them, they'll be worth something . . . someday.

I, Tammy Sayles, being of crazy mind and somewhat sound body, do hereby leave Wendy McCallum all my excuse slips that seemed to have worked; to Judy Salzer and Suzanne Fanning, I leave Andrea's and my booth at Eyvette's; to Tracey Bailey, the ability to get a deeper voice; to Sandy Cline, an extra 10 pounds; to Mr. Barnhart, my ability to hang in there; and to Marcy Taylor, all my sincere thanks, my mother's thanks and all my love.

I, Neil E. Vickstrom being of totally sound mind and perfect body, do hereby will the following: my awesome Toyota Truck to Shawn Ehrenfelt (who will probably not wreck it as much as I have), my great running abilities to Brian Puddaphat (it will probably slow him down), my terrific sense of humor to Mr. Flynn (who will need it in the coming years), my fantastic intelligence to everyone (because there is enough to go around), my talking ability to anyone who can use it, and my eternal love to Traci Coles.

I, Tracey Kasson, being of dirty mind and medium size body, leave to my brother John, the exclusive right to the car which he already has, and a case of sunflower seeds to keep his mouth busy in class, and his noon times free. I will to all those unfortunate teachers, the patience to put up with (brothers). Good luck, you'll need it.

Deirdre O'Callaghan

I, Brenden Irish, being of sound mind and muscular body, leave behind my ability to rule over all underclassmen to Jeff Herndon, and my ability to burn them off in the back parking lot and not get caught to Mark Johnson. Last, but not least, I leave my one punch knock-out power and my title of "Maddog" to my cousin David. (I hope you handle it!)

I, Joe Fortune, being of sound asleep mind and somewhat lazy body, hereby bequeath my ACE driving record to Bruce Barney. To Carla Smith and Lisa Sinnot, I will my leather jacket. To my little brother, I leave my ability to get into trouble and talk my way out of it. To Leslie, I leave my place on the bench in the front hall. To Mike, I leave you luck in building another "race car" that you love as much as you loved your Javelin. I leave to all underclassmen the ability to avoid Ms. Radich when coming back from breakfast. To Kristen, I leave all my love and to my fellow classmates, I wish the best of luck in life.

Karl Reimers

I, Brent Wilson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave my ability to tolerate the system to David Schneidecker, my love to Pam, and last, but not least, my ADS speaking ability to coach Steve Mehlhoff so that he may endure the pain of humiliation as I have throughout the year.

Ruth Robertson

Julie Rogers

I, Sally Sampson, being of dingy mind and somewhat short body, do hereby will to the following: to Mr. Anderson, his own bag of sunflower seeds; to my little ("big") sister Barbara, all the good times in high school and stay out of trouble (like I did); to Dawn, Phyllis, Dianna and Karen, thanks for all the good and crazy times. I will always remember them, "PARGAZ 82." Finally, to all the seniors, good luck in the future.

I, Diana Berry being of partying mind and body, do hereby will to the PARGAS-ers many more good times, parties, concerts, and many memories. To Mrs. T., I leave a lifetime supply of chocolate chip cookies and a big thank-you for everything. You are a very special friend. To Sully, I return all of the punches and bruises on my arm, even though I will miss you. Last, but not least to Judy I wish lots of luck and many happy memories. You're a very special friend, and hang-on you're almost there!

I willfully and knowledgably cede to the individuals of this system my secret: Live each day to gain something and live forever to give something. As of this date I, Patrick Galasso, with learning mind and tested body leave Eddie Jassman my 3-year old and functional Brooks, and to Ed Henderson my Mr. Yuk. I leave my thanks and hope it is enough to three individuals who inspired me and helped me through these last two years: Ron Flynn, Marcy Taylor, and John Stotka — thank you. To Mr. Tucker, I thank you for the needed skills and hope to see you someday on the imaginary, i, plane (if I ever understand how to find it). To Sue Calkins, the most important person of these two years, I leave more than thanks; I leave many memories and look forward to seeing her in a place she showed me, eternity. To you who are still reading, I hope you find a friend as such. Let loose; go for it; dream and never say die. It's a short life.

I, Tim "Spike" Loving, being of extremely mature mind and body, bequeath to Frank Olsen my condo in San Francisco as well as a free pass to Finnchios; my abundance of talent to "Killer" Kay. To Marcy T. a whole lot of thanks. To Andy, I leave a phone number to a psychiatrist. To Mr. Mehlhoff, I leave my ability to get centered. To Julie Rogers, I leave all my best wishes for a happy future. To Stacy, I leave many fond memories. And lastly, but not leastly, I leave my superb arch-building capabilities to Mr. Correia.

I, Jayme Freund, being of sound mind and extremely short body will my leadership abilities to Mark Berryhill, Chris Morgan and Steve Sunnes, and many thanks to all my good friends. To Mr. Ticknor, I leave many memories and thank yous. To my dad, Mr. Stotka, lots of hugs and wonderful ski trips. To Mr. Baird a big thanks for all his advice, and Miss Radich, good luck always. To the Senior Class many more smiles and good times, and last, but not least, I will love and kisses to a wonderful person, Todd Morrow.

I, Phil Taunton leave Frank Olsen my deer hunting skills, so some day he may be just as talented as I am at the sport. And I leave my field goal kicking talents to John Rogers, so he can try to be just as awesome as I was. And to Greg Olson and Steve Baty, those two "Welchkins", I leave them another chance in a game of basketball to prove themselves against Barger and myself.

SENIOR WILLS

I, Stacey Jones, being of sound mind and tiny body, will to Tracey Bailey the lunch that I still owe her; I leave my wardrobe to Suzanne Fanning, and to next year's Family Living class, I leave my mom, Bobbi Scheimann, to cry at your weddings. Take good care of her. To Katy, Shirley, Julie, Marilyn, Sue, Allison, Debbie and Jayme, I wish you all the happiness in the world and thank you for many warm memories. To the class of '82, I wish good luck in whatever you may do!

I, Ruth Robertson, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following: I leave my height to Sherry Krake, who needs it most of all. To my husband, Jay Tepper, I leave many good times and all of luck in his future. To Ms. Pechman, I leave a year's supply of Campbell's Soup. To Mr. Kinney, I can only leave "a homely woman's advice . . ." To next year's stage band, I leave a lot of luck and patience at festivals. I leave Samarie Mercereau all the good times we've had this year and a place open for many more. To Mr. Culver, I leave all of my beginner piano books so that he may learn to play the piano over the summer. And last but not least, I give with greatest importance, all of my thanks to Mr. Parker, who helped me a great deal to reach my goals throughout my senior year.

I, Duane Curtis, being of Chevy powered mind and average body, give to Mr. Mel the opportunity to catch Ron Hendrickson; to one of my favorite people, Carrie Aaron, the ability to chose one person to go out with; to Steve Beaty, I leave my ability to stuff a basketball, since he does try so hard; to Tracy Kasson, I leave a car so he can drive; to Tucker Morgan, I leave a perfect, indestructable vehicle, so he won't hurt himself, although no doubt he will find a way to.

I, Vreni Heider, Alp and ocean lover, leave Ed Jassman my running ability because he really needs it. To Miss Curran I will my talent to ski in my ski boots without destroying my skeleton. I leave my smile to Mr. Flynn so that he doesn't feel so down when he has to give so many f's to his students.

I, DeWayne Lumpkin, being of grateful mind and body do hereby will to all underclassmen the friendliness and acceptance the senior class has shown me. I appreciated this more than they'll every know. To next year's swing choir members, I will my ability to get along with Mr. Culver. Finally to Mr. Flynn and Mr. Tucker, I leave this statement: "I'm not stupid; my mind just doesn't work scientifically or mathematically."

I, Alison Teal, being of British nationality and bloody proud of it, leave my ability to talk in an understandable manner and to pronounce words like "tomato" and "process" to all Americans. To Jay Tepper I give my ability to hold the fork in the left hand and keep the knife in the right, whilst dining in British company, so he won't be thought barbaric. To Susie Baby Quade I will that she become a foreign ambassador so that together we can take over the world; I also leave her the remains of my Branston Chutney that I searched the USA for. To all Lincoln Citians I leave my love and best wishes

I, Jay Tepper, being of sound mind . . . sometimes . . . and body . . . all the time . . . do hereby bequeath the following revised copy; TO "HOT LIPS CURRAN" I leave a big jar of JALLAPENO PEPPERS and a LIME in hopes that she will warm up those cold evenings and Spice up her Life. To RUTH ROBERTSON, my wife, I leave the fond memories and fun that we have had. To ALISON TEAL I leave the hopes that she will leave me with all her BRITISH ETIQUETTE. God knows that I am going to need it. To SUSAN QUADE I leave my Telephoneitis, Senioritis, and my Locker #709. To KAY RANNOW I leave my Swimmers' Hair, Lifesaving Shirt, and my Love. To my friend and confidant, SAMARIE MERCEREAU, you will always be remembered.

I, Kenneth T. Goodpaster, being of somewhat sound mind and body, do write my last will and testament. I will to Traci Dummer my bass guitar and my place in state band. I hope she has much fun lugging an amplifier around at festivals. To Mr. Culver, I leave a year's supply of free etiquette lessons so that he may learn how to burp politely. To Mr. Parker, I will great success in his new singing career. And to Crusher Coffield, I wish great success in her new sports announcing career. Good luck to the 82/83 Taft Players Repertory Co. and its star attraction, Katie Kemp. To the entire class of '82, I wish the greatest of success in the world hereafter. Thank you all for the many years of great fun in this life of compulsory education; it's been a good life (so far).

I, Susan Calkins, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my "Highboard Outfit" to Mark Berryhill for his terrific modeling career at Beach Toggery; to Kelly Keeney, a million happy birthdays in swing choir next year; to next year's track team, a McGreat season; to Mr. Flynn, a lot more uniforms to wash; to Sully, my thanks for all your help throughout the years; and to Pat Galasso, a million thank yous and smiles for all of the Love you've given me; I will miss you!!

I, Craig Berg, being of absolutely intellectual mind and body, do hereby will the following: To Mr. Mehlhoff I give our broken briefcase, empty flowpads, and a bottle of aspirin; also the hope that maybe one day he'll have a debate team as good as the 81/82 team. To next year's treasurer, whomever the job goes to, I will my ability to put up with Mr. Baird and Mrs. Steere and still get the job done, along with a year's supply of ink pens and finger splints. To Mr. Olsen, I leave the thought that I graduated and still don't know the definition of impeachment. And finally to Mrs. Taylor, I leave a lot of thank yous for all the guidance, help, insight, and support that helped get me on my way.

I, Paul Holloran, being of sound mind and tall body, do hereby forthwith settle all my possessions of skill to Taft High: To Chris Morgan, I bequeath my title of "Audio-Specialist". To David Schneidecker, I leave my ability to set up and tear down dances every Friday night. To Todd Holden, I leave the sole presidency of the highly successful Fantasy Game Club. And to Allan Paige, the ability to harrass any teacher you like.

I, Debbie Zimmerman, being of sound mind and body, leave a lot of good times, sad times, and special times to three very special friends: "Shirley, Allison and Gail." To Mr. Stotka, I leave lots of laughs, tears and a million thank yous. To the class of '82, I wish the best of luck. My appreciation goes to Sully, for helping me when I needed it most. Most of all, I leave all my love and many lasting memories to DeWayne.

I, Dolores Ray, being of somewhat sound mind, do hereby will my golfing abilities to Lisa Wright for when she may need them; to Kim Miller, my patience so she can make it through her committee meetings; my determination never to give up, to all those people in sports; and finally to Traci Coles, I will that she finds all the happiness I did my senior year.

I, Todd Morrow, will my Camaro knowledge to a good friend, Chris Beachell, so he will have the fastest and nicest car next year.

SENIOR FIELD DAY

The seniors left for Silver Creek Falls on June 1st. The sun didn't shine but the clouds didn't rain so spirits weren't dampened until river dunking began. Almost everyone was thrown in. They played games like 'Red Rover' and threw eggs at each other. After the park they went to see a movie in Salem. All had a fun and memorable day.

To Bill Biggs for all his photographic help —
Our minds were clouded like stormy skies, not knowing what to do.
You came and offered all you could and all you knew.
You began to shine upon our days, as the sun breaks through the clouds.
Our storm is all over now, and we are very proud.
